

Off-Campus Study Opportunities

Federal and state financial aid may be available to eligible students studying in an off-campus study program (not an NNU program) that has been approved through the Global Connections office.

Students participating in established NNU exchange programs are eligible for the financial aid they would receive while studying on campus at NNU.