

COMP4220 : Artificial Intelligence

The goal of Artificial intelligence is to enable a computer to learn, plan, and solve problems autonomously. Concepts and techniques involved in artificial intelligence including goal-directed searching, constraint satisfaction, fuzzy logic, pattern recognition, evolutionary computation, and genetic algorithms. Fee: Additional fee required.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

COMP2750

Fees

Additional fee required.