

EDUC4771 : Philosophy of Christian Education

Introductory examination of the nature and function of belief structures and how these belief structures impact the way one teaches in Christian schools. This course will include consideration and development of one's worldview.

Credits 1