

KINE4950 : Internship in Athletic Training

Practical application of the theory of training technique in a variety of settings. Training skills and principles may be applied to achieve the established goal of prevention and care of athletic injuries.

Credits 1