

PHYS1120 : College Physics II

A comprehensive non-calculus-based approach to the fields of physics. Designed for students whose career goals are architecture, business, physical therapy, science education, and pre-medicine. Emphasis is placed on problem solving. Topics covered include electricity and magnetism, light and optics and modern physics.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

PHYS1110

Corequisite Courses

PHYS1120L