

THEO4550 : Systematic Theology I

An advanced systematic study of the Christian faith from a Wesleyan perspective, with particular reference to historical development and contemporary understanding. The subjects include theological methodology, revelation and inspiration, God, humanity, sin, theodicy, and holiness.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

BIBL1100

THEO2100

CHIS3630