

BSNS3420 : Business Law II

Study of the present-day law of business in the United States as it relates to corporations, agencies, and negotiable instruments. Emphasis is also given to legal principles as they apply to partnerships, corporations, and non-corporate associations. Ethical considerations and international topics are also discussed.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

BSNS3410, or instructor's approval.

Semester Offered

Alternate years.