COMP1220 : Introduction to Computer Science

Provides a broad coverage of topics in computer science and its applications. Investigates the capabilities of computer technology. Includes an introductory experience in programming. Also includes introductions to professional ethics and careers. Fee: Additional fee required.
Credits 3
Prerequisites
An ACT Math score of 23 or its equivalent.
Fees
$150