MATH3540 : Differential Equations

This course focuses on solving linear differential equations, series methods, and exact equations using integrating factors. Topics also include Picard's method of successive approximations and the Laplace transform.
Credits 4
Prerequisite Courses
MATH2520