

PHIL4430 : Metaphysics

An investigation of the ultimate philosophical commitments about reality. Topics selected may include the basic constituents of ontology, the nature of space and time, causality, freedom and the self. Representative figures in the history of philosophy may be considered and analyzed.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Four credits in philosophy or instructor's approval.

Semester Offered

Alternate years.