

PSYC1550 : Introduction to Psychology

A study of the basic principles of human behavior, giving attention to developmental patterns, motivation and adjustment, learning and memory processes, and individual differences in aptitude, personality, and mental health.

Course fees attached.

Credits 3

Semester Offered

Spring Semester.

Fall Semester.

Fees

$25