

THEO2100 : Introduction to Christian Theology

A study of the essential doctrines of the Christian faith in systematic form. The underlying foundation will be biblical faith, with special emphasis given to the interpretation of the Wesleyan-Arminian tradition. This course is designed for general students. Must receive a grade of C- or higher to fulfill the General Education Christian Formation requirement.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

BIBL1100